Words: William Walsham How (1823-1897). Music: Sine Nomine, Ralph Vaughn Williams (1872-1958).

All continue standing while the following anthem is said by the priest.

Celebrant: I am Resurrection and I am Life, says the Lord. Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he die. And everyone who has life, and has committed himself to me in faith, shall not die for ever.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last he will stand upon the earth. After my awaking, he will raise me up; and in my body I shall see God. I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

For none of us has life in himself, and none becomes his own master when he dies. For if we have life, we are alive in the Lord, and if we die, we die in the Lord. So, then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's possession.

Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord! So it is, says the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

Collect for Burial

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray. O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day our brother David. We thank you for giving him to us, his family and friends, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Lamentations 3:22-26,31-33

Please be seated.

Reader: A reading from the Lamentations of Jeremiah.

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

For the Lord will not reject forever. Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love; for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23

Read responsively by half verse.

Reader: The LORD is my shepherd;

People: I shall not be in want.

Reader: He makes me lie down in green pastures

People: and leads me beside still waters.

Reader: He revives my soul

People: and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.

Reader: Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil;

People: for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

Reader: You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me;

People: you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

Reader: Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,

People: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2

Reader: A reading from the first letter of John.

Reader: See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 6:37-40

Please stand to hear the Gospel.

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the people, "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: In the assurance of eternal life given at Baptism, let us proclaim our faith and say,

People & Celebrant:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers

Please sit or kneel.

Celebrant: For our brother, David, let us pray to our Lord Jesus Christ who said, “I am Resurrection and I am Life.” Lord, you consoled Martha and Mary in their distress; draw near to us who mourn for David, and dry the tears of those who weep.

People: Hear us, Lord.

Celebrant: You wept at the grave of Lazarus, your friend; comfort us in our sorrow.

People: Hear us, Lord.

Celebrant: You raised the dead to life; give to our brother, David, eternal life.

People: Hear us, Lord.

Celebrant: You promised paradise to the thief who repented; bring our brother to the joys of heaven.

People: Hear us, Lord.

Celebrant: Comfort us in our sorrows at the death of our brother, David; let our faith be our consolation, and eternal life our hope.

Celebrant: Father of all, we pray to you for David, and for all those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May his soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Sursum Corda

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who rose victorious from the dead, and comforts us with the blessed hope of everlasting life. For to your faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant & People: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues:

Celebrant: † Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." †††

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ††† Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant & People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: Now as our savior, Christ has taught us we are bold to say:

Celebrant & People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

At Grace Episcopal Church, all baptized persons are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please tell the usher if you need communion brought to you at your seat. IF you wish to receive the bread only, hold your palms upward, consume the bread, and cross your arms over your chest when the chalice bearer approaches. Those who do not wish to receive Holy Communion are invited to come to the altar rail to receive a Blessing, indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest when the priest approaches.

David Allen Edwards

David Edwards passed away peacefully at home July 19th, 2023. He was born September 19, 1945 in Oklahoma City to D.D. "Eddie" Edwards and Willie Bernice Edwards. His family moved to Muskogee at a young age, and he made his home there the rest of his life. He graduated Muskogee Central High School followed by Northeastern State University in Talequah.

David met Linda Stratton in the fall of 1974 and they married in December of that same year. She supported him in his business endeavors and raising their three children, Anthony, Emily, and Stratton. Although a graduate of NSU, he quickly adopted Linda's alma mater of Oklahoma State University and was a rabid Cowboy fan the rest of his life.

Following college, David made his mark on a number of business in Muskogee, many of which he owned over his lifetime, most notably Quality Staffing. His involvement in the community went well beyond his work, and he was active in a number of civic organizations, including Green Country Girls Softball Association, the Boy Scouts, the Muskogee Chamber of Commerce, New Hope Ministries, and Grace Episcopal Church. When not active with those organizations David could be found at Wauhilla Outing Club along the Baron Fork River.

David was predeceased by Linda as well as his parents, his older brother Jon Edwards, and his daughter Emily Green. He is survived by his younger brother Stephen(Kory) of Okanogan Washington, his sons Anthony (Jane) of Silverton, CO, Stratton (Sharmili) of Fort Hunt, Virginia, son-in-law Jason Green (Stephanie) of Muskogee. He is also survived by his grandchildren: Paton and Amelia Edwards; Trapper, Phoebe, and Gabby Green, Jayden Rye and Josh Thompson; and Mina, Asha and Thatcher Edwards. His daughter-in-law Stephanie Green was particularly comforting to David as his health declined.

Services will be at Grace Episcopal Church on Friday, July 28th at 10 am. The service will also be available on Facebook.com/GraceMuskogee (<https://fb.me/e/19aKIDv2n>) for those who cannot attend in person. Those who can join in person are encouraged to wear orange.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Grace Episcopal Church Memorial Fund.
